

EMERY PLACE RECEIVES IALA 2107 “PROPERTY OF THE YEAR” AND “HERO OF THE YEAR” AWARDS!

ROBINS, IA, AUGUST 2017 – With just two years of operation under their belt, Emery Place in Robins has already made a name for their community and a reputation for being one of the very best choices in Iowa! As a two time, consecutive SeniorAdvisor.com “Best of Assisted Living” winner, Emery Place has not only been recognized by Senior Housing Management for their occupancy and operational success, but also by those who live at the community.

A year after opening, it was apparent that Emery Place would need to construct additional apartments to continue to meet the needs of their growing waiting list. Through the addition process, the community maintained consistent 100% occupancy and were able to create a seamless transition of move-ins once the addition was opened.

Emery Place has become a staple in the Robins community and it is not out of the ordinary to see their logo on the front page of the local paper. From over-the-top community events and wildly successful fundraisers, to innovative programming and residents’ Dare to Dream program, Emery Place has that something special that often speaks for itself.

Each year the Iowa Assisted Living Association (IALA) hosts their annual conference in Des Moines to provide educational opportunities, information on the latest industry trends and products, and to recognize “Star” individuals and communities. This year, Emery Place had the privilege to be named 2017 IALA “Property of the Year.” While there are many notable communities that deserve recognition, Emery Place has the track record and the positive support behind them worthy of this distinguished honor.

As if that wasn’t enough, Emery Place’s very own, Life Enrichment Coordinator, Misty Cottrell, received the “Hero of the Year” Award! Misty’s countless efforts and dedication to the Emery Place residents is evident in her every day activities. Misty helps to meet every residents’ needs for varied activities, transportation and fun outings. Families shared their heartfelt comments in this nomination and coworkers appreciate, respect and admire Misty in all that she does to make Emery Place a joy live and work! Misty continuously goes “above and beyond” in everything she does and is so deserving of this honorable recognition!
